

LOOKING AT LIFE THROUGH A DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVE 2000-2001

AS we go through life, many different views are placed upon us. They are brought by society, family, and friends. When we have reached maturity, we accept many of those views, and they become what guide us through our years.

Express Yourself!

"I like being able to leave school for lunch and eat off campus somewhere."

-Katie Johnson

"The big people are scary."

- DeAnn Mundell

"It was cool because I could be in school with family."

- Christy Hudak

"It's better than grade school."

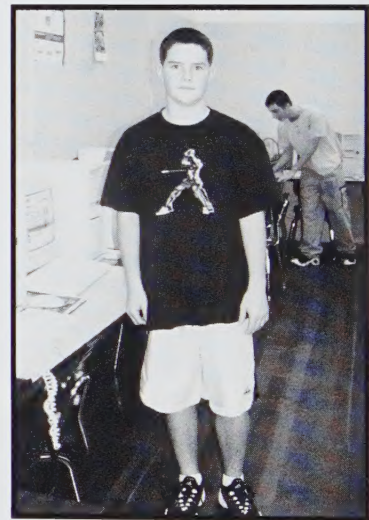

- Cindy Magers

"It's better than grade school. Way better, like monstrous! Needs more cute guys though."

- Ashley MacMurray

"More food at lunch!"

- Stephen Dyer

"I don't get picked on as much as I thought. Everyone said that freshmen get picked on a lot, so it kind'a made me nervous." -Jake Mullins

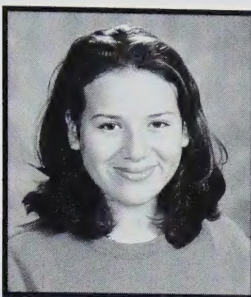

"It is different than junior high because there is more freedom, like eating off campus and the teachers don't follow you around like little babies." -Tashauna Kilmer

How does this year compare to your Freshman year so far?

"This year is umm, umm, ummm..... I don't know. It's the same as last year. It sucks!"

- David Stevens

"It's alright and the only thing better about my sophomore year is better classes."

- Grant Anderson

"It's a'ite. I dunno. They're both pretty much the same."

- Dan Ferguson

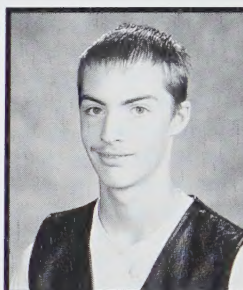

"Being a sophomore is money!"

K-12

Throughout the years, we have seen many people come and go. Out of all the Seniors we have, only seventeen have been here through it all. Together we've survived many milestones in our life. From our first day of eating in the cafeteria to our first kiss, we've stuck it through together. Who can forget our very first day of Kindergarten together, or how nervous yet extremely excited we were the day of promotion. Together we've come this far and after we graduate, we will split apart and go our separate ways. But we won't ever forget the thirteen years we laughed, cried, fought, loved and survived it all together.

Senior Skip Day

With a packed bus and lots of noise, the 2001 Senior class headed out to Bullwinkles in Wilsonville on Monday, May 14. The difference this year is that they went at night, from 8pm to 12pm. There was karaoke, laser tag, mini golf, bumper boats, go-carts, video games, and much more. It rained the whole time and everyone got pretty wet, but it was still a great time. The bus arrived home at 2:30am, and everyone went home and went to bed. The next day there was a picnic at the lake and everyone brought food. There was a jet ski, and a few boats also. The park ranger threatened everyone with $250 tickets if they didn't get parking passes, but everybody complied and things went great. Senior Skip Day was a day no one will forget!!

Whats the deal? Jesse Pierson, Matt Tikkala, Blair Manke, Ryan Anderson, and Ray Cain are either showing us some new plays, or have just fallen and are having difficulties getting up!

Waiting in the rain; Vicki Cox, Mary McKibbon, Tara Smith, and Rachel Morton smile for the camera until it is their turn on the go-carts.

Sharp shooter Libby Thompson shows everyone the proper way to destroy the enemy.

Singing in the rain.... and the pool water!! Carissa Poole laughs as she twirls her bumper boat around to squirt whoever just soaked her.

Hole in one!!.... or maybe it was three. Either way Ryan Anderson is very excited about his score.

Singing country style, Heather Ervast and Erin Holt show their talent with a classic Shania Twain song, "That don't impress me much!"

Trying to impress the ladies, Chad Hartley sings the crowd many songs, from "I swear" to "Pretty Woman!"

Soaking up the mud, Todd Davis falls while playing football with the big boys.

Intense on his game, Max Libouton carefully eyes the buck so that he doesn't lose.

Go speed racer!! Katarina Tyrell waits for the race to begin.

Getting a little sleepy, Kristie Armstrong grins after dancing all night in the karaoke room.

I am NOT mischevious!! Christi Burton is just simply planning an innocent Senior meeting!!

Wisdom For Life

Enjoying the cookies and the company, Carissa Poole and her son Anthony mingle around the crowd.

Giving a speech at Baccalaureate, Mrs. Gach wishes the Senior class good luck in the future and happy, long lives.

Using his piano skills, Eric Reinoso plays along with the other musicians to help make the service fun.

Helping out during the musical portion of the service, Andy Wintersteen plays the bass guitar.

Cuddling together before the service, Brandon Wilson and Tonya McCoy wait for people to sit down so they can find their seats.

After the service, Christi Burton and Vicki Cox show off their mugs that they were given, grab some cookies, and mingle in the crowd of people.

Amazed they made it, Leland Billings and George Arnall look happily shocked that they have finally graduated.

Making his way towards his family, Nawang Kunga saunters in style in his purple cap and gown.

Ready to move on, Christi Burton takes one last picture before she hits the road.

2001 Graduation:

The Biggest Moment Of Our Lives

Working on calming their nerves, Hannah Hatfield and Dixie Dasher take a few moments to just relax.

After the ceremony, Amanda Wait smiles for the camera, showing just how happy she is to have finally made it.

Ready to accept his diploma, Josh Sage makes his way across the stage.

One last hug... Matt Simonsen and Lindsey Forney give each other one final hug before they both set off to lead their new lives as graduates.

Showing the audience the Senior hall portraits, Andy Wintersteen and Matt Tikkala thank their lucky stars after a near drop only moments before.

Just look at that girls smile... You can tell Vicki Cox is happy that she has finally graduated!

Preparing to start the graduation procession, Vicki Blodgett, Matt Tikkala, Max Libouton, Hannah Hatfield and Andy Wintersteen smile and calm their raging nerves.

Proudly displaying her diploma, Elisa Tussing stops and smiles for her family and friends in the audience.

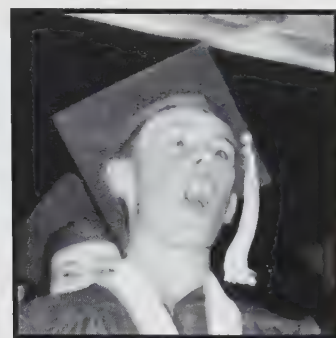

"It's about time" was all Katarina Tyrell and Julie Fitzpatrick had to say after graduation.

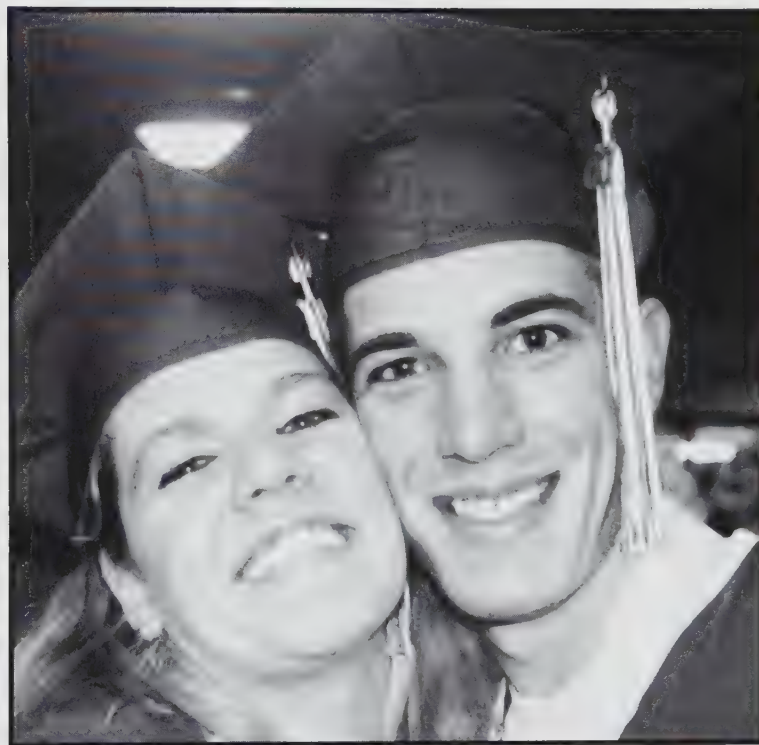

After getting his diploma, Andy Wintersteen starts on his way back to his seat.

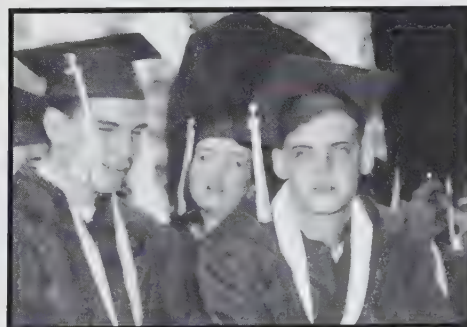

Letting out a final yell, Blair Manke shows how excited to finally be graduating.

Holding his honorary diploma, Max Libouton raises his eyebrow and talks about how easy it is to graduate in America.

Glad the year is over, Tonya McCoy and Brandon Wilson hold each other close and think of all the good memories they had at Warrenton High.

After receiving their diplomas, Ryan Anderson and Todd Davis kick back and relax until the rest of the ceremony is over.

The Senior Nightlife

2001 Grad Night Party

Chillin' together at the bowling alley is Chad Hartley, Alison Flynn, Sarah Knippa, Julie Fitzpatrick, Katarina Tyrell, and Meredith Flynn.

Ripping it up on the ping pong tables is Vicki Blodgett, having a great time.

Showing off his skills, Mauricio Forero plays ping pong like the pros.

Trying out the sumo suits, Blair Manke waits for his opponent to strike.

Ready to kick some butt, Jarrod Thebiay waits as his opponent gets suited up for a tough battle.

Waiting for his turn in the boxing ring is George Arnall.

Total Knock Out... Todd Davis lies flat on his back after being taken down by his opponent.

Hoping to win a prize, Vicki Cox waits for the next number to be called during bingo.

Guarding her hole against the puck, Christi Burton remains intensely focused on her game.

Practicing his boxing skills, Max Libouton looks like he just beat.

Mr. Jon Richard Ogren

On June 21st, 2000, WHS said farewell to one of the most beloved teachers. Mr. Jon Richard Ogren passed away of heart attack and left the entire community mourning. Mr. Ogren began his career at the Warrenton school district in 1989, teaching band and choir to students in the 5th through 12th grade. He started his teaching career in 1981 though, beginning at the Seaside HS and moving to many other locations before finally settling in Warrenton. He married his lovely wife, Lisa on December 21st 1985, and together they began their family. He and Lisa had four gorgeous girls; Chelsea, Emily, Claire and Grace. If you didn't know Mr. Ogren, you missed knowing one of the nicest, caring people. He donned a great sense of humor and was always there to listen and help when students needed it. He was very generous with his time and talents. He was really supportive and put in 110%. He will surely be missed and never be forgotten. We will hold him in our hearts forever.

"Mr. Ogren was the one teacher that I really connected with. He was so supportive and always was willing to listen to my problems. When Misty passed away last year, Mr. Ogren helped put everything together and he even came to the family to see how every one was doing. In fact, this year he was planning fundraisers with the band and choir classes to raise money for Misty's headstone. To me, that is a student dedicated teacher. The most important thing to him, was his family, his music and his students, and it really showed.

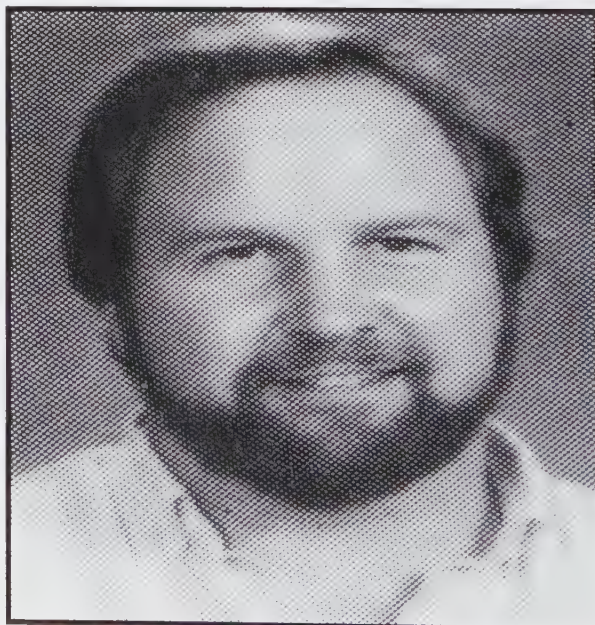

There are so many times I remember with Mr. Ogren. All of our trips and concerts, and how he would stand and talk forever. He would often mess up or do something funny, and the whole band would start laughing and teasing him. I really miss him, he was the best." ~~~~~Tara Smith~~~~~

"What I remember about Jon is sense of humor. That man was always smiling! He also told great jokes (I appreciate this because I can never remember a joke.) That's how I want to remember Jon; I want to remember his laughter, and his love for his music, wife and children.

Every year after graduation all of the teachers get together and talk about the year. A few years ago, Jon and I were the last ones to leave. Somehow we got to talking about relationships and he told me how he met his wife. She was one of many people auditioning for a role, but all he could see was this beautiful young woman. You could tell that even though years had passed and they had four children, he still saw her as that beautiful young woman. I went home thinking Jon was one of the luckiest men alive, and I still do.

~~~~~ Ms. Kay Rannow~~~~~

"Jon and I didn't know each other very well, but the two times we spoke, I remember with fondness. The first time was at a meeting. I was taking my students to Portland on a field trip and he was planning something for his as well. The students that had a conflict, he dismissed so that I could take them with me. He was very kind and accommodating of my dilemma. I thank him for that. The next time we spoke was at Berne LaCasse's retirement party. You laughed with me on the condition of my broken arm and how it could have been worse. We laughed at the details of the "break." Jon was a terrific person from the little I knew of him. I will always remember him with good thoughts."

~~Senora Yolie Turner~~

"He was a great man! When I needed him, he was always there, as a teacher and as a friend. I will always remember him!" ~~~~~Becca Greenway~~~~~

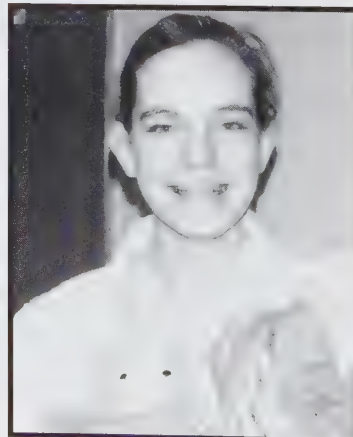

"He was wonderful, not only as a choir director, but as a person. He taught me to appreciate and love music so much. I will always remember what he did for me!" ~~~Synnove Glarum~~~

"I had him for a band teacher, and he taught me all that I know about music. He was very inspirational, and he's the reason I want to be a teacher."

~~~~Monica Maddox~~~~

Homecoming

Wake Up & Walk

The tradition continues as Wake Up and Walk Day once again starts off Homecoming Week. Just about everyone dresses up, after all, how difficult could wearing pajamas to school really be? The Homecoming court is crowned, and the Junior Olympic games begin. The Leadership class was in charge, and the games they chose were dizzy bat basketball, a doughnut eating competition, potato sack race, and an ice-cream eating contest for the Homecoming court.

Keeping his eyes on the prize. Greg Hitchman waits in anticipation for the chocolate-covered doughnut to reach his mouth.

Keeping warm under all those layers. Suzy Scroup and Carrie Salber huddle together.

Dressed up & ready for the assembly. Blair Manke shows off his stylin' ensemble that includes a shirt with "Delicious" written across it.

Posing with their teddy-bears and a giant fish, Tyler Birman and Amber Corbin were the best-dressed Juniors.

Ice Cream Eating Contest

She's ready to go!

Dee-Dee Arnall waits for her teammate to cross the line so that she can start spinning during dizzy bat basketball.

Eating as fast as he can, Josh Hollaway is fed by Jennifer Sisley. Josh beat out the competition to get first place for the Juniors in the event.

Betcha can't swallow that in one bite, Anthony Danzl isn't afraid to try especially since he's competing for the Junior class.

Lookin' good! Freshman Sabrina Danzl and Rick Walter went all out for Wake Up & Walk Day.

Shooting for the win, Tonya McCoy retrieves the ball after yet another miss during dizzy bat basketball.

What do I do? There seems to be some confusion about the rules as Trisha Reed gets ready for the potato sack race.

Showing off their Senior Spirit, Sam Wentz and Vicki Cox sit in bed while they wait for the results of the dress-up competition.

Full of encouragement, Erin Holt helps Greg Hitchman eat his doughnut as fast as possible.

Just Bummin' Around . .

Tuesday was Hobo Day, where almost the entire school came in their rattiest, stinkiest, and most disgusting clothes they could find. People had rolled around in the mud and dirt, hoping to get that dirty, unshowered look. First the best dressed boy and girl from each class were sent down. The Seniors were the best scrubs as they took first in the dress up competition. The first game was the pie eating contest, where one girl came down from each class and held a pie pan full of creamy pie and fed it to the guy in the class... or just smeared it all over his face! The next game was the lip service where 3 boys and 3 girls from each class were called down to lip sync, but it ended up turning more into a break dancing mess. We finished off the assembly with a plunger scooting race! A person had to put their boots on one scooter, and their feet on another and make their way across the gym floor using only a plunger to scoot them to their partner.

Striking a pose in her grungiest clothes is Dulcy Mickelson.

Covered in dirt from head to toe is Sarah Morgan and David McFadden, showing their Homecoming spirit.

"Proudly displaying his hoboness, Marcus Garrido heads on down for the best dressed Sophomore.

Sure hope that's pickle juice! Chugging away is Jeff Weaver.

Looking like they came from a garbage can, are Raylene Dean and Laura Standridge.

Can't touch this! Junior Deegem Bernal dances away to Michael Jackson during lip service.

Keep Scootin'! Rafael Marasigan proves that Freshman aren't wimps!

Class Unity Day

Seniors are #1! Seniors Zuzana Boucká, George Arnall, Lindsey Forney, Leland Billings, Alison Flynn, and Andy Wintersteen might have won first place in tug-of-war, but that's only because they had help from a gorilla.

Chief beats Gates again! Eric Reinoso and Dan Gates face off before their rematch. Seniors rushed to the floor and celebrated after Chief pulled off another win.

Sophomores come in last. This is only because sophomores didn't follow all the rules so they were disqualified. (bottom right).

WHAT DOES CLASS UNITY MEAN TO YOU?

I think class unity is the class coming together and working as a team.
- Sharon McDonley

It means coming together as a class to achieve goals that are hard.
- Andy Forney

It means the class coming together and destroying anyone who isn't our kind.
- Billy Ashe

Class unity means, that we all for once do something as a group.
- Tara Smith

Find that bean! Eating as much whip cream as she can, Jewell Russell eventually found the hidden bean. (far left)

Yummy! Cristeen Atkinson uses her face and searches for a jelly bean, hoping to bring a Freshman victory.

"Here come the men in black." Even though they're only Seniors and not galaxy defenders, Julia Milbich, Sara McMakin, and Heather Ervast have fun showing off their spirit. (far left)

Juniors are working their way to the top! Mr. Calvert's Workforce Prep. class takes time to show off how much class unity and school spirit they have.

"They call me mellow yellow" The Freshmen sextuplets Katie Johnson, Ashley MacMurray, Christy Hudak, Cindy Magers, Jake Mullins, and Tashauna Kilmer sing their way through Homecoming Week.

Life as a Twin. . . . . For a Day anyways

While on their very own tropical vacation, Becca Greenway and Meredith Claterbos stop and look at the camera.

Sugar is sweet and we are too. Jolie Rodgers and Sarah Morgan take a second and stop licking their lolly pops and show off their bright smiles.

Quotes:

It was great Dulcy Mickelson and I like totally looked alike. We were just sooooo cute!
-Amber Corbin

It was fun, and Sean Beecham and I were twins and hopefully it's as much fun next year.
-Jake Mullins

Aren't we just so cute? Showing off their smiles is Stephanie Olsen and Rose Dugan.

40 Twin Day

Say Ahhh.... Some people follow directions so well, but others like Paul Mossman choose to stay in their own little world. Good job Amber Blecha, Nick Ryan, Jared Warner, Josh Hollaway and Mike Konidakis for taking time to listen.

Yippie-I-A we're cowgirls today. Lindsey Forney and Wendy Bue roam through the school herding up their animals.

Results:

Best dressed twin girls: DeeDee Arnall and Jenna Thornhill dressed as Bat Women.

Best dressed twin guys: Matt Tikkala and Jarrod Thebiay dressed as Armored Knights.

Shoe compition race:

First- Sophmores      Second- Juniors
Third- Seniors      Fourth- Freshman

Lip Sync:

First- Juniors      Second- Seniors
Third- Freshmen      Fourth- Sophmores

Look at those two good looking Juniors strutting their stuff, an Gates and Jeff Pike show off their rough side.

It's Bat Women and the winners of Twin Day. Juniors Jenna Thornhill and DeeDee Arnall show off their girl powers.

Go Loggers...huh? Juniors Becky Bobek, Adam Neahring, Jolie Rodgers, Kyle Johnson, Amber Shrode, Tyler Birman, Isaac Anderson, and Marisa Iverson dressed up as Knappa Loggers for their skit.

Even the freshman have spirit! Brittney Campbell and Erin Beecham show that the freshman do know what they are doing.

We just have NO rhythm... Or so say the Seniors during their skit. Leland Billings, Jesse Pierson, and Brandon Wilson played a few of the football players who needed to get some rhythm before they could win.

You can't have school spirit on an empty stomach... Chris Wilson chows down on his burrito during lunch.

Homecoming Skits

Are they lookin' good or what? George Arnall and Vicki Cox were chosen for the Seniors as best dressed.

Homecoming Game 2000

Warrenton Warriors vs. Knappa Loggers

On Friday, October 27th, our school celebrated their homecoming with one of the biggest wins yet! The Warriors took on the Knappa Loggers, defeating them 26-0. Warrenton scored a touchdown every quarter of the game. Scoring those touchdowns were Andy Horn, Nick Smith, Tyler Birman and Mike Konidakis. Overall, the Warrior offense ran up 278 yards total.

Getting the defense going,

Adam Neahring (86) and Issac Anderson (51), start their way to break through the Knappa offense and sack the quarterback.

Set... Hike! Isaac Anderson (51) snaps the ball to Quarterback Andy Horn (16).

Looking down where the play tells him to go, Mike Konidakis (26) waits in the formation as prepares to run down the field to help the team get 1st down yardage.

Attempting to break through, Kyle Johnson (60) gets tackled by a couple of Loggers.

Welcome to the Jungle

The Jungle

October 28th 2000 was the night everyone at Warrenton High School caught the sickness. It was diagnosed as "Jungle Fever." The first symptom caused all the students to dress in strange and unusual ways. The girls wore beautiful dresses and the boys wore nice pant suits. Some outfits were described as "outrageous!"

As Saturday afternoon turned into night the animals were set loose. When everybody arrived at the dance the fun had just begun. After walking through the jungle maze and reaching the dance floor everyone was surrounded by a canopy which made it feel even more like a jungle atmosphere.

The dance floor was already filled. Even the chaperones showed off some moves of their own. Some people danced non-stop to the music played by the Z100 DJ. Others relaxed with their dates or talked with friends. You could hear the cheering of the excited teens ring through out the entire three hours of the dance, however, a lot of people would of had more fun if the dance lasted at least a couple of hours longer. 8:00p.m.-11:00p.m. is just not long enough.

The king of the Jungle Jarrod Thebiay and the queen Christy Jones shared a special moment in the spot light as they slowly danced to the song "I Do" by 98 Degrees. As the song grew on, the rest of the Homecoming court joined in as did the other students.

Homecoming 2000-2001 will definitely be a dance to remember!

A smile worth a million! Heather Ervast doesn't look like she can stop smiling.

Say Cheese! Well almost everybody managed to smile.... Ash Lukoszyk, Misty Wilson, Joe Isom, and Brianne Moreton seem to be enjoying each other's company.

Exhausted but still trying to keep a good profile are Nawang Kunga, Blair Manke, and Todd Davis.

Party Animals! Students from all different classes and schools turn out for our Homecoming dance.

King of the jungle Jarrod Thebiay and his Queen Christy Jones share a memorable moment in the spot light as they slow dance to the song "I Do" by 98 Degrees.

Who are those wild animals? Why it's Anthony Danzl, April Nelson, and Nick Bjork getting down to the music on the dance floor.

Overwhelmed with joy! Trying to control himself Mitchell Simonsen takes a deep breath while being surrounded by his beautiful friends Amy Collins and Desiree Bergerson.

Prowling through the jungle. These two girls, Elisa Mossman and Ashley MacMurray, tried to hide but Eric Reinoso AKA Chief found them.

Monkeying around or is Rya Anderson just trying to show us that he knows how to dance

Romance is in the air. While slow dancing, Kelly Ca and Jared Hudson give the camera a quick smile before returning to their special moment.

Jungle Fever! You can tell by the expressions on Dul Mickelson's and Chad Hartley's faces that they have caught jungle fever.

Taking a breather before going back on the dance floor to do some more breakin' is Steven Fife.

Showing off some of her moves Meredith Flynn grooves to the beat of the music.

Taking time out from their busy jobs as chaperons are Mr. and Mrs. Ewald.

"It was real, it was fun, but it wasn't really fun. We will miss you Swany. Maybe you are trapped in a giant Cellia-roll. We will meet again..."

"Volleyball was fun! I thought we all grew as a team. When we worked together, we played awesome. Good luck next year to all my girls, I hope you do better than we did this year. I'll miss you all and the swan."

"I thought we grew as a team this year. We didn't do as well as we all had hoped, but I'm extremely proud of my girls anyway. They all grew and progressed throughout the season."

Undefeated In Their League, Warrenton Stands Tall:

The Warriors have been undefeated all year. Winning all the games they played with their mad skill and awesome teamwork, they show everyone what Warrenton High Football is made of. In their league games they always had the upper hand, bringing down any sorry opponent that tried to challenge.

Kicking Off An Amazing Season: Dan Gates sends the football flying from the tee.

Bringing 'em Down! Another short yard-gaining play for the opposing team. Issac Anderson and Beau Cederberg fight as the opponent is pulled to the ground.

Anyone for bacon? The pig and Mr. Mattila take a break from coaching and entertaining.

"The 2000 football season was very successful with the team regaining the Northwest League Championship with a 9-0 record. In the preseason poll, it was predicted that Warrenton would finish in third place. The team was led by a quickly improving defense that only allowed two touchdowns against it all season and forced 38 turnovers. The offense was also improved, scoring 330 points while passing for over 1400 yards and running for 2400 yards. Next season looks bright for the Warriors as they return all 11 starting players on defense and 10 on offense." -Coach Mattilla-

Warrior Strategy Always Triumphs: Nick Ryan hands the football to Andy Horn.

Hut-hut-HIKE! You can see the other team shaking in their pants with the Warriors set and ready to tackle.

Crrr-unch! They are definitely going to feel that it the morning. Josh Hollaway and Nick Smith are tangled in a tackle.

Fighting off the defenders, Isaac Anderson and Beau Cederberg break through the defensive line.

Born To Soar... Look At Him Go! Reaching for the football, Isaac Anderson jumps through the air.

Doggy Pile! Caught in mid-air Adam Neahring dives into the pile. It would be bad to be the guy at the bottom of that.

Scoring A New Perspective

“A good learning experience” was how one varsity basketball player described this year’s season. There were many close games. The season was full of outstanding wins, and heart-breaking losses. The guys improved both individually and as a team. They started out slow, but had a strong finish. The biggest game of the season was against Knappa. With a trip to state on the line, the guys gave it their best shot, and the game went down to the wire. Sadly, our team lost, but they did better than many people expected them to. With all but three players returning next year, the Warriors should be a force to reckon with.

At the line, Beau Cederberg has perfect form as he shoots another free throw. Beau had the highest free throw percentage for the Warriors this year.

Nice follow through, Adam Neahrng shoots the ball with deadly accuracy.

Warming up his jump shot, Anthony Danzl gets ready for a big game against Rainier.

Pulling down another board, Jarrod Thebiay grabs an offensive rebound. Thebiay led the team for rebounds, with 203 throughout the season.

The Lady Warriors

The girls this year have done a wonderful job. Lots of positive attitudes and team support at all times. They had a really good record this year with 17 wins and 4 losses in the season. The Varsity girls made it to play offs. They ended up losing to Portland Christian and City Christian, but they were really good games. All around, the girls had a really good season and we hope to see them improve further in the future.

Watching the Ball Fly

The golf team enjoyed success to a certain extent this year. They did well in each tournament yet never got a first place finish. The participants in this year's golf program were- Beau Cederberg, Greg Hitchman, Brandon Wilson, Blair Manke, Matt Hayward, Nick Ryan, Travis Bough, Chad Ferguson, Jake Mullins, Eric Lane, Matt Wilson, and Brad Reef. The golf team had a strong showing at Districts placing sixth out of sixteen teams. In particular Beau Cederberg had a very strong showing placing second at Districts and going on to State to finish at a strong sixth.

The greatest golfer alive!? Blair Manke launches one with his eight iron at the driving range.

Out of the bunker, Jake Mullins practices on his sand shots.

No Pressure, Nick Ryan gets ready to hit his six iron.

A team of talent, part of Warrenton 2001 golf team gets ready to practice.

Number one at work, Beau Cederberg, the number one player for Warrenton hits a short chip shot. This year Beau finished second at Districts and had a strong sixth place finish at State.

Versatility is key, All three coaches are good coaches to say the least but they are also good golfers.

Synnove Glarum and Katarina Tyrell are Warrenton's only swimmers. Because Warrenton doesn't offer swimming, they swam for Seaside. They were an important part of Seaside's team. Together they swam on the 200 Yard Medley Relay, and the 200 Yard Freestyle Relay. Individually, Katarina swam the 100 Yard Breaststroke, and the 50 Yard Freestyle. Synnove swam the 500 Yard Freestyle and the 200 Yd. Freestyle. At districts, they placed 1st in the 200 Yd. Medley Relay and in the 200 Yd. Freestyle Relay. Katarina also placed 1st in the 100 Yd. Breaststroke, and 3rd in the 50 Yd. Freestyle. Synnove placed 3rd in 500 Yd. Freestyle. At the State meet, their 200 Freestyle relay team took 1st, and broke the State record. They also placed in 2nd with their 200 Medley Relay, helping Seaside take 2nd place overall for 3A State.

Taking a break from making waves, Katarina Tyrell and Synnove Glarum hang out with Seaside's very own Matthew Stowers, Joe Oyala, and Nate Phund.

In the 200 yard medley relay, Katarina Tyrell swims the backstroke. The Medley team placed 1st at the Astoria meet. They also placed 1st in the 200 Freestyle Relay and Katarina placed 1st in the 100 Breaststroke.

On the diving block, Synnove Glarum steadies herself as she gets ready to start in the 200 Yd. Freestyle. She placed 3rd in districts.

S Flagging him on, Mr. Wolfe signals Andy Horn to round 3rd base on his way to home plate.

Hitting as hard as he can, Nate McBride works for a home run. Nate plays 3rd base for the team.

p Diving for the ball, Andy Horn face plants into the grass out in right field. Andy was a left and right fielder for the team.

Going for the home run, Adam Neahring hits the ball as hard as he can.

Pitching against Knappa, Jarrod Thebiay goes for a strikeout. Jarrod also played first base.

Throwing a curveball, Dan Gates tries his hardest to strike out the batter. Dan also played at second base.

Up at bat, Kyle Johnson waits for the pitch from Knappa pitcher John Evans.

Making it safely back to first, Jared Warner beats the first baseman to the bag.

At first base, Jeff Pike works on scoring another out for the opposing team. Jeff played 1st base and also was a pitcher.

Warrior Pageant 2001

This year's Warrior Pageant was held on the 9th of May. The pageant was put on by the National Honor Society to raise money for Doernbecher Childrens Hospital. The pageant was a success. Everyone who went, laughed hysterically at the competitors talents, sports wear, interviews, and their answers to trivia questions. It was a successful blast!

"I think I got jipped...I think I should have won, cause I was the best guy out there."

-Andy Horn

"I...am...MONEY!"

-Jeff Pike

And the winners are ..... the 2001 Mr. Warrior is Jeff Pike and the 2001 Ms. Warrior is Sabri Danzl. Congratulations!

The Judges Have Made Their Decision!

Dee Dee Arnall, Becky Bobek, and Holly Bandeen crowd around the table to talk and calculate the winners.

Prizes!!!!

Josh Holloway flaunts the prizes he won at the pageant.

Sporting his cool hoola hoop and shades is Jarrod Thebiay.

Look Mom! No Feet!

On his hands, Andy Horn shows his talent.

And Winnerls....

Synnove Glarum and Julie Fitzpatrick are the MC's.

Do The Cat Walk...

Sarah Morgan struts her beautiful self down the run-way.

Life in a Crab Shell

Warrenton came alive for once as 15,000 people were packed into the Hammond Mooring Basin for the 19th annual Crab Festival. Many students were among those in attendance, there to taste the fresh seafood, browse the booths, and hang out with friends. The leadership class helped plan a few activities for the Festival, including a dunk tank, pageant, and county-wide dance.

Members of the leadership class (and a few Astoria people) who helped at the crab fest are: (from top)

Gladiators! Carrie Salber and Chelsea play a "friendly" jousting game.

Testing out the sound system are Nick Bjork and Ryan Anderson.

Hard at work ?!!

Buddy Dichari and Anthony Danzl seem to be doing something useful as they stack crab pots.

so proud of the young woman you have become! God bless you and guide you now in all of your future plans. I love you very, very much!

Love, Mom

Chad S. Hartley

Chad, From the day we confirmed your impending arrival (St. Patrick's day 1982), to your actual arrival (one minute before midnight), we wondered at the mystery of you. All the days since we have loved watching you become the person we are so proud of today! Congratulations!!

Love, your Family

Tara Michelle Smith

To our little Angel Face, congratulations honey. Mom and Dad are so proud of you. We love you so very much. Glad to know that there was no brain damage when you fell out of the bed! he he he.

Love Mom and Dad.

Sonnie Mae Sjostrom

Princess Cosondra~ You have been a lot of fun to have around. You are a very special person. You have been a great friend for Elisa, and a wonderful "other daughter" for me. God bless you richly in all of your endeavors!

Much love, Lori

Tonya Lynne McCoy

Dear Tonya,

We could never tell you enough how proud we are of you. You have always been a joy to love.

Love,

Dad, Mom, and your brother

Trying life as a leader

ASB OFFICERS

PRESIDENT - Blair Manke

"It felt good to stand in front of the school and lay the smack down. We had a good crew for the ASB office and the executives did an awesome job!"

VICE PRESIDENT- Isaac Anderson

"I was unpleased with the way things were run, some individual staff members really took the student out of Student Council."

SECRETARY- Kyle Johnson

"Elections were the best, everything else was just routine."

TREASURER- Mike Konidakis

"Student Council was great.... I felt we accomplished alot and still had fun doing it!"

SERGEANT @ ARMS- George Arnall

"It was real, it was fun but it wasn't real fun."

PUBLIC RELATIONS- Anthony Danzl

"I felt great being the Public Relations officer, even though I wasn't much of one cuz I missed most of the meetings due to b- ball games."

Getting his groove on with Senora Turner, President Blair Manke shows us age doesn't matter.

BELOW: Congregating in the library for refreshments Isaac Blair, Mike, Anthony and Kyle look back on their success.

About to initiate next years officers is Anthony Danzl, George Arnall, Mike Konidakis, Kyle Johnson and Isaac Anderson.

The Warrenton High School 2000-2001 Class Officers and Student League Officers have been involved in many activities and events this year. A few things they have done to help out our school and other organizations include participating in a number of sports, being blood drops for the blood drive, and putting on dances.

We appreciate their dedication.

Sadie Snags Her Sweetheart

Taking time away from their cowboys to smile pretty is Christi Burton and Vicki Cox. Keep smiling ladies!

Giddy up Cowboy! David Tagg has what it takes to be a real cowboy!

Showing the foreigners how to dirty dance cowboy style! April Nelson and Beau Petrov.

Look at these hot cowgirls! Synnove Glarum and Katarina Tyrell show off their straw hats!

What is this cowgirl doing? I think Marisa Iverson is trying to do ballet! Wrong type of dance huh!

Shoot 'em up baby! Shaena Stabler and Becky Bobek get ready to fire away.

Holding each other close is Zach Gantenbein and Erin Beecham.

Taking time off the hay bales to smile for the camera is Diana Kerr and Isaac Anderson.

You'll look so cute tonight! Kristie Armstrong and Danielle Verdue show us how cowgirls really dress!

Love the pants! Matt Culp and Christina Wing strike a pose!

I'm a cowboy baby! Tyler Birman is our school's Abner, coming to Sadies in regular attire!

Cinco de Mayo Festival

The history of this wonderful Mexican fiesta dates back to 1862 when the French Army invaded Mexico in the city of Puebla. The celebration focuses on the victory of the peasants of Mexico against the French Army. This fiesta pays tribute to this battle and victory. Cinco de Mayo is a national holiday in Mexico and is celebrated here in the US as well as throughout the country. Here at WHS the Spanish 1 and 2 classes participated in the Cinco de Mayo celebration by holding their own fiesta. This year the fiesta included puestos (booths) that include a variety of games. There was a face painting booth, fishing booth, Loteria (bingo), Bolero, and Fotos. Spanish 1 provided Mexican food for everyone, and Spanish 2 sold tortilla chips and homemade salsa. The culmination was 2 pinatas. Several students swung at the pinata while others waited anxiously for it to get hit and run for the candy. It was tremendous fun!! ~ Senora Turner

What a crowd!! Libby Thompson, Josh Sage, Monica Maddox, Brian Hartley, Cyndi Magers, and Rachel McEntee share their holiday spirit.

Pretty Senioritas, Jessica Dunn, Gracie Smith and Trisha Sitter show their festive attitudes in Mexican tradition clothing. Arent' they cute??

Helping out in the kitchen, Tse Palmo whips around to find a camera, pointing her way and smiles huge!

Bunny ears anyone? Marion Sluetel, Kasey Konidakis, and Danielle Perdue smile as they enjoy the fun fiesta.

AY, AY, AY.... Blair Manke and Mauricio Forero show us how to play the Mexican tradition game, Bolero!

Two sexy amigos! Andy Forney and Mike Edwards take part in the holiday festivities.

We are not leaving... and thats all there is to it!! Katarina Tyrell and Synnove Glarum are having so much fun, they look like they want to stay all day!

Looking like a genuine hombre, Josh Hollaway dresses in authentic attire for the festival.

Life by the Numbers

Using highly sophisticated polling techniques, we took a look at how students feel about everything from tatoos and Costco dogs to living in a small town.

Girlfight! Amanda Wait takes out her aggresions on other membes of the Senior class at the Grad night party.

Tattoos are:

68% awesome
32% body mutilation

Fights in the parking lot or hall:

53% say circle around and cheer 'em on
47% find them immature, unnecessary and dumb

Costco dogs:

82% say a cheap lunch
18% say stinky and gross

Interesting statistic :

56% of Freshmen admit to brushing their teeth only once a day or not at all. Out of the rest of the school, only 25% brush once a day or less.

This year's Homecoming Week was:

Life in Warrenton:

51% can't wait to leave
41% not as bad as everyone says
8% say Warrenton is wonderful

How often do you brush your teeth?

5% say they brush once in a while
27% brush once a day
59% brush twice a day
9% brush at least three times a day

Pulling for the win, the Sophomores battle it out during the Tug-of-War. 60% of students thought that this year's Homecoming was better than last year's.

Through The Eyes of an Artist

Swaying back and forth during the scene of the “Pom Pom Zombies” musical is Lindsay Kleber, Misty Wilson, Danielle Perdue and Becca Greenway

Lookin fierce is Katie Heater, Sabrina Danzl and Jennifer Sisley singing wonderfully.

Going to the Chapel of love is Keisha Edwards singing with all her might to the song “Chapel of Love” in the talent show.

Butterflies! Kasey Konidakis is the artist of these wonderful butterflies. Kasey had this artistic piece of work sitting out for everyone to see at this years arts night out.

Performing two songs, “My Guy” and “One Fine Day”. Are Deann Mundell, Chelsea Abbott, Brittney Campbell, Diana Kerr, Ashley Johnson and Danielle Cederberg

Singing a funky tune are Jared Warner, Tyler Birman, and Brandon Wilson. These three guys sang "Sitting On A Dock Of A Bay".

Reciting her play lines, Jennifer Sisley gives the audience a taste of the musical "Pom Pom Zombies".

Playing their flutes are Lisa Tagg, Carrie Salber and Rachael O'Brien. They impressed their friends and family with the song "Amazing Grace".

This masterpiece was put together by Greg Hitchman in ceramics class. Greg spent many hours putting this together and working really hard to accomplish the making of his fish.

Giving Another Chance At Life

It makes it worse when you watch other people getting their blood taken!

-Vicki Blodgett

I was scared to give blood. I'm a wimp and I hate needles. So I just took pictures instead.

-Julie Fitzpatrick

This years blood drive was a success. Mrs. Dick and Ms. Oien's Leadership class organized and ran the whole thing. The blood drive was held on Feb. 9th and there was a goal of 55 people. By encouraging people to sign up, and with the help of the community, 66 people tried up the courage to get their blood taken. Every pint of blood given was equal to four saved lives.

Displaying the needle's entry mark, Vern Hart starts on his way back to his classroom.

Making everything come together, Wendy Bue works to make the blood drive a success.

Taking over for the Seniors as blood drops, Juniors Jared Warner, Jenna Thornhil, Dee Dee Arnall, and Andy Horn take a break from recruiting people. Being a blood drop used to be a Seniors-only privilege, but the Leadership class changed that to a Leadership-only privilege, therefore taking away something many Seniors had looked forward too.

Filling out the forms to donate blood, Chris Burton sits patiently while she waits to be called to the blood mobile.

The Facts of Life

Juniors win Quiz Bowl! Kyle Johnson, DeeDee Arnall, Rick Moses, Paul Mossman, Melanie Coulombe, Andrew Dyer, and Shaena Stabler made a great team.

Waiting to win, Matt Hayward, Holly Bandeen, Dara Sutton, and Robert Edwardson gave it their best shot, but had to settle for second.

Strike a pose, Jimmy Ihander finds reason to celebrate after the Freshmen beat the Seniors in a round of quiz bowl.

Coming in 2nd (Above Left), Robert Edwardson, Matthew Hayward, Mrs. Craft Tenzing Gyatso, Holly Bandeen, Dara Sutton, Jordan Guenther, Rachael O'Brien and Synnove Glarum were representing for their class.

Freshman take third, Jimmy Ihander, Eric Lane, Monica Maddox, Zach Gantenbein, Katie Arnall, Nate McBride, Kyle Crofts, and Travis Bogh did OK for their first year of competition.

"This Magic Moment"

Right: "One day my prince will come" but for the moment Princess Sonnie Sjostrom will settle for her escort, Todd Davis.

Could they be happier? You can tell by the huge smiles on Andy Horn's and Rebecca Greenway's faces that they really enjoy each other's company.

Simply irresistible! It doesn't look like Billy Ashe could be torn away from Sarah Morgan.

Having balloons of fun is Sabrina Danzl as she wrestles a giant balloon away from a friend.

How many have you had? It looks like Sheana Stabler has sucked down one too many!

"Prom kicked some serious asphalt!"

ACADEMIC

Smiling with pride. The new members of the National Honor Society hold their candles of truth. From left to right: Devin Sutton, Synnove Calabrese, Jennifer Christman, Holly Hamlen, Doreen McLaughlin, Francisco Carrion, Isaac Saavedra, Andy Horn, Deanna Berdal, and Brad Bost.

BELOW—The future is so bright, between Deegan Bernal, Nick Ryan, and Vicki Cox you have got a lot of academic accolades. Each person has dedicated themselves to achievement, and they have succeeded.

RIGHT—Recognizing honor. Isaac Real and Brad Saavedra pose while listening to President and Kappa talk about HHS and future funding.

FAR RIGHT—Time for the John Hancock. Deegan Bernal puts my patented signature on the Hancock, and in doing so is inducted into the National Honor Society.

HONOR OF

This year the Honor Society induction ceremony was held on December the 13th, 2004. The assembly's purpose was to honor ten students who have exemplified themselves as honor students, students who through dedication have met their academic goals. The students (the new Honor Society members) were Holly Hamlen, Deanna Berdal, Jennifer Christman, Synnove Calabrese, Doreen McLaughlin, Andy Horn, Doreen McLaughlin, Francisco Carrion, Isaac Saavedra, and Devin Sutton. The students were praised not only by the fellow Honor members but also by the guest speaker, Michael Foster, whose speech was an inspiration for everyone who aspires to be just a little bit better. The inductees lit the flame of truth and recited the honor pledge and were thereafter inducted into the Honor Society. Afterward, there was a banquet held on the behalf of the new members.

BELOW—Smiling ready for the assembly. Julie Fitzpatrick looks back. The new Honor Society members, by coming to school every day, try to get things perfect.

A DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVE

It's official! Synnove Glamm goes to get her Honor Society certificate and to shake hands with Mr. Foster and Mrs. Gach.

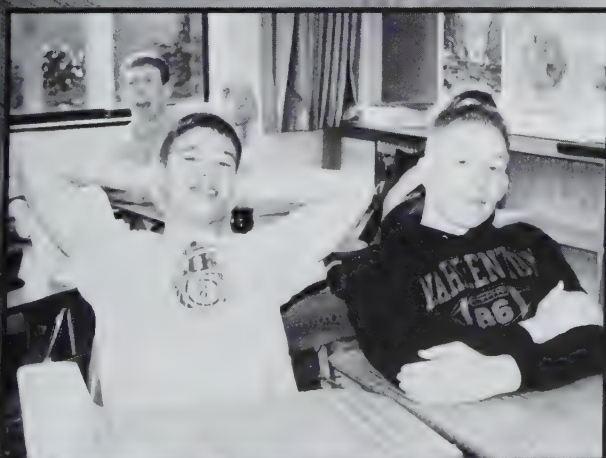

Do not let the candle burn out, Tenzing Dwyer, Synnove Glamm, Jennifer Christmas, Deegem Bernal, and Holly Bandolet hold their candle high as the other members relight theirs.

Cutting the cake, it's Sarah Anderson and Vicki Cox anxiously awaiting the bite.

Smiling with honor, Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Kraft are the Honor Society advisors.

Takin' it easy, Andy Horn and Adan Neahring must take a break from the many pressures and hardships that the NHS has to offer.

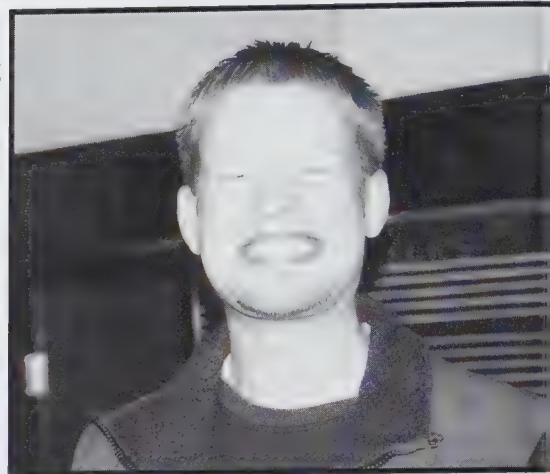

Colors of Honor, then during Honor Society business given to Mr. Foster's speech, each student wears a color to signify their position of office within the NHS.

Living Life Through The Sound of Music

Dont look so dazzled. Chad Hartley is showing off his bright smile.

Learning how to tongue their notes. Zach Gantenbien, Nick Ryan and Jared Warner show of the excitement going on in band

Concentrating hard, is the band class during one of their first concerts.

Don't Concentrate to hard! Jeff Pike pays attention for once in class.

Not missing one beat. Sarah Knippa and Becky Bobek play their flutes.

Playing with quite the might is, Josh Hollaway and Andy Horn playing their trombones.

Doing a good job, is Dulcy Mickelson playing her clarinet at the fall concert.

Lyrical Perspectives

Taking a moment to relax, Jamie Lethin, Rachael O'Brien, Carrie Salber, and Sabrina Danzl kick back and demonstrate how they prefer to sing.

Silly Sophomores, didn't anyone ever teach you to pay attention? Katie Thomas, Dara Sutton, Synnove Glarum, and Kristi Hitchman forget all about singing.

With a new teacher, comes a new style. Ms. Jenny Nickles was the new choir teacher, and many weren't used to the way she did things. At first it was difficult adjusting, but as time went on, things got better. Although the choir had many tough songs, they worked hard at them. They performed the songs at the annual winter and spring concerts.

Top to bottom, left to right: Rachel Morton, Marion Sluetel, Misty Wilson, Christy Hudak, Ashly Lukoszyk, Mary McKibbin, Elisa Mossman, Tony Malinen, Lisa Tagg, Amy Jones, Desiree' Bergerson, Amy Collins, Rachael O'Brien. 2nd Row: Tsering Palmo, Dara Sutton, Chyrie Simon, Kelly Cain, Heather Ervast, Adam Simmons, Tyler Birman, Brandon Wilson, Brittney Campbell, Jamie Lethin, Ashley Johnson, Carrie Salber, Sabrina Danzl. 3rd Row: Keisha Edwards, Katie Thomas, Synnove Glarum, Kristi Hitchman, Jared Warner, Ryan Anderson, Schaid Shaw, Heather Hampton, Ashley MacMurray, Vanessa Archuleta. 4th Row: Deann Mundell, Charlene Snook, Lynsey Kleber, Katie Heater, Becca Greenway, Tonya McCoy, Chelsea Abbott.

Far left: Speak no evil, See no evil, hear no evil... At least that's what Katie Heater, Becca Greenway, and Tonya McCoy think!

Practicing their music, Marion Sleutel, Ashly Lukoszyk, Rachel Morton, Misty Wilson, and Heather Ervast get help from Ms. Nickles.

Creating her evil plan, Ivana Ratnik, played by Synnove Glarum, sings the song "Power".

Just about to kiss... Ivanha and Lady Lenore, played by Tony Malinen and Keisha Edwards, are falling in love.

Thinking to herself, Lady Lenore, played by Jennifer Sisley, waits for her man, Ivanha to come and sweep her off her feet.

Together as the Beatniks, Becky Bobek, Danielle Perdue, Becca Greenway, Melanie Coloumbe and Keisha Edwards do their best to raise the dead.

Performance Of A Lifetime

Playing the narrator, Nick Bjork tells Katie Heater the story of Ivanha.

Na na na Skip-per... Tony Malinen, Nick Bjork, and Billy Ashe do backup vocals for the song "Skipper" sung by Shaena Stabler.

Don't touch the hair... Billy Ashe played Zeke, the cute football player who had stylish hair he just didn't want messed with.

Finally together with her long lost love, Barnacle Betty, played by Shaena Stabler, smiles happily at Skipper, played by surprise guest Jesse Allgeyer.

Playing "the nerds" are Tyler Birman, Tashauna Kilmer, Eric Lane, Lynsey Kleber, Sharon McDonnelly and Marion Sluetel.

Playing the part of Friar Fred, Eric Lane does his best to preach to Tony Malinen, who played Ivanha.

Smooth strokes, Nick Ryan works on his Indian art project. All Indian art projects as of now are hanging in the hall.

Foreign forte', Andrew Vergun was named, along with five other people, as artist of the year.

THE IMAGINARIUM

This year art seemed to be the place where leadership to get into the zone and anyone who wanted to learn and fun knew where to go. There were many disappointing moments in the kiln. Nobody can deny the simple fact that art is a clay where creativity shines. Mr. Ewald is a teacher, a kid at heart and mascot behind the program. He is always best keeping the students in line by creating art out of lumps of clay. This year the students crafted many masterful pieces, including but not limited to: Indian art out in the hall, recycled trash can (one of which was a jungle scene and the other was "The Little Mermaid"), and a painting of a ferocious T-Rex located in Mr. Porter's room, a painting of two macaws in Mrs. Ewald's room, and the portrait of Einstein, (all done in pencil.) Success does not even begin to describe art class this year. Art is an imaginarium; "a successful adventure" for all students.

Magnificent Macaws, The artist Josh Sage stands next to the picture's new owner Mrs. Ewald.

Spinning the wheel, Kelly Flynn and Tonya Ames work on the potter's wheel.

Indian art at its finest, Kristie Armstrong and Kelly Ames paint their chosen Indian symbols.

Glazing time. Dulcy Mickelson and Sarah Morgan work on their clay projects. Dulcy is getting ready to glaze her pot while Sarah is sanding down her rose.

Good Times. Erin Holt smiles while she cuts out a piece of paper. In art there is never a dull moment, there is always something fun to be doing.

"ART THROUGH IMAGINATION"

Very cool. Maxime Libouton uses the exact knife to carve out his superb pot. Max was another foreigner who received artist of the year.

Proud of his work, and rightfully so. Daniel Thompson had quite a few disappointing clay projects go boom! this year. Daniel bounced back from his unfortunate accidents to make some seriously superb projects out of clay.

Art was a ton of fun for each and every individual who had the privilege to be in the class. The artists of the year were Maxime Libouton, Andrew Vergen, Ronald Diego, Daniel Thompson, Josh Sage, and Brad Reef.

Behind the scenes of The Learning Center

"We work with the 'individual' in an environment structured to meet specific needs."

Another way of learning.

Everyone has the right to learn

Teachers: Mrs. Ewald, Mr. Reed, Mrs. Wall, Mrs. Steve, Ms. Watson and Ms. Martin

Racing against time, Mrs. Ewald and Willie Nelson scramble through old magazines in search of an advertisement.

Getting her Global Studies work done, Laura Standring counts up her words on her article summary.

Finding an interesting article to write about, Marcus Garrido and Steven Olson search through the Daily Astorian to find that perfect article.

Checking his work for Biology, Rafael Marasigan double checks his answers before moving on to the next page.

ANOTHER LOOK AT STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

The three stooges. Sarah Knippa, Jeff Pike and Julie Fitzpatrick take time out of their busy schedule to smile for a picture.

Looking around the school, you'll see Ron Diego, Amy Herren, DeAnn Thatch, Casie Cochrane and Jessica Kemmerer making a difference to make Warrenton High School a better place.

Looking At The Leaders Of Tomorrow

Taking time away from their hard working classtime to make a quick phone call are Jared Warner and Andy Horn.

Is somebody sleeping in class? Sonnie Sjostrom shows us that even the best of us fall asleep in class sometimes.

Trying to look cute, while still working really hard are Linda Forney and Sara Bergerson. They're calling home to make sure their parents know what's going on in our school.

Taking time away from work to pose for the camera are Nick Bjork, Blair Manke, Ryan Anderson, and Buddy Dichari.

Talk to the hand! Elizabeth Arnall lets us know not to mess with her.

Calling home, Jolie Rodgers let's all the families know about parent-teacher conferences.

Taking time away from their hard work to smile are Nate McBride, Jessica Miller, and Suzanne Scroup.

Thinking really hard the Becky Bobek and Maena Stabler.

Trying to look all macho, Mike Konidakis, Kyle Johnson, and Matt Tikkalac can't even show their pearly whites off for us all to enjoy.

Taking time away from all the hard work she does. Jenna Thornhill smiles cute.

What posers! Deegem Bernal tries showing off his muscles... Then there is Anthony Danzl trying to look all tough. These boys sure are dreamers!

Checking Out The Wild Life

Students Taking Care Of Wild Creatures

Proving just how much he likes this dissection, Jake Dunn opens his mouth wide and prepares to eat the starfish.

Working out at the fish farm, Holly Bandeen feeds the fish. The fish are Coho Salmon that they've been raising.

Above: Attempting to save the fish, Leland Billings gets his hands wet so the fish don't escape down the river.

Here birdy birdy... Todd Davis and Nawang Kunga pose with their parakeets "Marshall" and "Kim".

Carrying around his snake, Rick Moses shows how he can easily transport his animal around.

Teaching A New Perspective

We had many new teachers and some returning teachers. The new teachers are Ms. Nickles, Mr. Calvert, Mr. Reed, and Mrs. Wall. We appreciate the new teachers. We have had a lot of fun and learned a lot with all of the teachers. The Educational Assistants have helped many students succeed in their classes this year. Those assistants are Ms. Martin, Mrs. Steve, and Ms. Watson.

Wolfe, Lennie

A WEBSITE

Webmaster at work. Dan Ferguson, the webmaster is the reason WHS has a webpage. He almost single-handedly concocted the WP.

Working on the sports page. Grant Anderson is a big contribution to the WP. Without Grant the website would rarely update and it certainly would not look as good as it does to this day.

ABOVE- Constructing a super website, Dan Ferguson and Grant Anderson are the only two members of the high school webpage. These two students are responsible for our school's website. Good job guys!

This year the website has improved leaps and bounds. Dan Ferguson and Grant Anderson are the two gentlemen who are responsible for this dramatic change. Last year the website could be summed up within a couple of sentences but this year all that has changed. Now there are more links, polls, the monthly calendar of activities, sports rosters, picture pages, and even an appropriate holiday logo that pops up when you open the page. The website keeps getting better and is always updating. The website just reached its 1000th hit, and is continuing to get hits each and every day. Do yourself a favor and check it out, you won't be disappointed. The address is: www.seasurf.net/~whs.

TIMES of a NEW PERSPECTIVE

Doing what he does best, Todd Davis works on his political articles. As a strong Republican, he will tell you that Bush really is good for the country and he will lead us to become a prosperous nation.

Putting the paper together, Editor Brad Reef works on his cartoon series, "The Faculty," a parody of a chosen teacher, whom is shown in a rather precarious position.

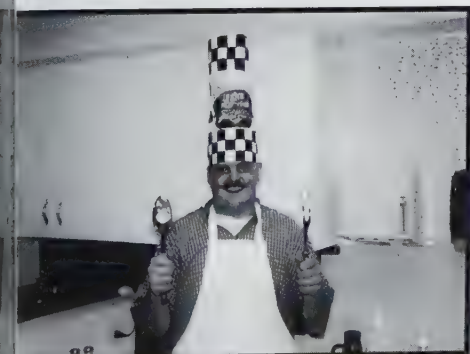

This year marked a new advancement within the status of the newspaper. The newspaper (The Warrior Times) was moved to actual newsprint paper, and looked like an authentic paper. A lot of time and work were put in to each issue of the NP. The newspaper staff never consisted of more than three people. The distinguished gentleman who brought you the eloquent paper this year were: Beau Cederberg, Jake Mullins, David Stevens, Stephen Dyer, Todd Davis, and editor Brad Reef.

Proud of his article, Beau Cederberg holds up issue #3 of the newspaper and points to an article written by himself.

Working hard, Jake Mullins and Brad Reef discuss plans for the next issue of the NP. These were the only two students that were involved with the newspaper the whole year. The newspaper crew were able to bring you five papers this year.

Burgers are my favorite, Stephen Dyer, as a chef, waiting for his cake to bake.

WHAT

"It is awesome, it is much better than last year's version. I like the "Faculty" picture and the monthly polls."
-Dulcy Mickelson

DO

"It is interesting because there are both feature and entertainment articles. It is more well-rounded this year."
-Ms. Whitney

YOU

"I feel that the newspaper improved by leaps and bounds this year. I feel nothing but optimistic about its future."
-Todd Davis

THINK ?

"Who needs the New York "Times" anymore?"
-Mr. Ewald

Life In The Yearbook Class

Capturing the moments and events that happen throughout the school

Looking proud to be in Publishing Class is Jewell Russell smiling away for the camera.

Concentrating hard to meet a deadline is Cindy Magers, not taking anytime to look up at the camera.

Surrounded by three cute girls is Brian McGinn. Next to him are Raechell McEntee, Ashley MacMurray, and Cindy Magers.

Cropping away at pictures is Dulcy Mickelson.

On the phone, trying to convince people from around the area to buy ads is Katie Johnson.

Posing pretty for us all is Ashley MacMurray.

At the printer waiting for layouts is Amber Corbin.

Playing with his laptop is Eric "Chief" Reinosso.

Perfecting all yearbook pages that have been turned in are the editors, Julie Fitzpatrick and Sarah Knippa.

Selling ads to raise money is Tara Smith.

What in the World? Brian McGinn shows off his great facial expressions and personality.

Taking time off from his layout for a quick smile is newspaper editor and someone who makes pages for the yearbook, Brad Reef.

Typing up some yearbook pages is Christy Hudak.

Working away on interviews and lay-outs, Raechell McEntee makes sure to get everything finished on time.
